

Dear Friends!

On behalf of Moscow Trade Union Federation let me congratulate you on the 1st May – the Day of Workers' International Solidarity!

At these challenging time we feel that all of you stand close to us. All world united in the fight against a pandemic. And Trade Unions need even more strength and courage to protect the rights of workers. But we believe that with solidarity we will win and be reborn!

Health, strength, peace to you and your families!

In solidarity,
MTUF President

Mikhail Antontsev